(Reader's Service to the China Mail)

PARIS, CONFERENCE.

NEW REPARATIONS SYSTEM LARGELY CAMOUFLAGE.

NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENT'S VIEW.

LONDON, February 1.

The generally optimistic attitude of the British press with reference to the agreement reached by the Allies with regard to reparations is not shared by the Westminster Gazette whose Paris correspondent says that Mr. Lloyd George was stung to plain speaking by the sentimental French view. The correspondent asserts as a result of his private conversations with British official personages that they know the sum obtainable to be relatively low. The correspondent expresses the opinion that the system now proposed is largely camouflage and in a few years when Germany will probably be behind in payments and the Allies alarmed at the inflow of German goods a very different compromise will be proposed. He says as regards the export tax that it will prove impossible to control German exports through neutrals or to America.

FINANCIAL EFFECTS.

LONDON, February 1.

City financiers point out that foreign exchanges and stock markets have not reacted as favourably as was expected upon the Allied agreement as regards German reparations. There is a certain amount of scepticism whether the terms are to be enforced and fears that Germany will pour out millions of fresh notes in order further to depreciate the mark. There was another twenty mark rise yesterday making 241 to the pound sterling.

WHAT REFUSAL WILL MEAN.

A Herald message states: M. Briand as President of the Conference sent the head of the German delegation a letter stating the conference decisions regarding disarmament. The letter says that the Allies, while granting Germany new delays, hope she realizes the serious consequences a refusal to carry out her obligations would entail.

FRENCH PRESS SATISFIED.

A Herald message states: The conference results appear on the whole highly satisfactory to the French Press which is especially pleased with the frustration of German endeavours to divide the Allies. The Estimate Cordiale is stronger than ever.

FUEL OIL PRICES

PRODUCERS DELIBERATELY EXPLOITING CONSUMERS.

OIL TRUSTS ATTACKED.

The Board of Trade's second report attacks the oil trusts. That the present costs of production of fuel oil does not justify the present prices, and that the producers are exploiting the consumers owing to a large demand, is the committee's verdict, which adds that there is no possible justification for the recent increase of seven pence a gallon in the price of petrol. The committee, while saying that it dislikes Government control, declares that there are only two ways of overcoming the difficulties. The first is combined action through the economic section of the League of Nations, and the second is the production of substitutes and the adoption of alternative sources of power to an extent that will lower prices. The soundest policy is to make the fullest use of coal and its products.

DEATH SENTENCE APPEAL.

CIVIL COURT REJECTS CORK MAN'S APPLICATION.

LONDON, February 1.

In connection with the appeal of a Cork man named Murphy in the King's Bench Division, Dublin, the Chief Justice delivered a unanimous judgment declaring that the Court had had no power to give a further stay of execution, but expressing the opinion that the prisoner should be given opportunity for making any further application in accordance with the Army Act.

[A London cable dated January 17 stated:—The High Court is hearing an appeal by a Cork man named Murphy against a court martial death sentence for participation in an ambush. Leave to appeal was granted by the Chief Justice after a strong agitation on behalf of Murphy whose innocence is asserted. The execution was postponed for the third time until February 2.]

SPORTING CLUB BOXING.

SCOTLAND RETAINS BANTAM-WEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP.

LONDON, February 1.

In the National Sporting Club 20-rounds bantam-weight championship Jim Higgins (Scotland), the holder, beat Kid Symonds, (Plymouth), on points.

REPORTED MUTINY OF WRANGEL'S TROOPS DENIED.

LONDON, February 1.

Enter learns authoritatively that the report of a mutiny of General Wrangel's troops cabled on January 18 was without foundation. There was disorder on January 12 but it was immediately stopped without bloodshed.

BIG TRADING ENTERPRISE

LONDON, February 1.

Subscriptions for the recent issue of the Amalgamated Trading and Industrial Corporation are being returned with 10 per cent. interest.

RUGBY DEBS.

SENTENCE NOT TO BE COMMUTED.

WASHINGTON, February 1.

President Wilson has formally disapproved the recommendation of the Attorney-General to commute the sentence of Eugene Debs.

TURKS SURRENDER TO GREEKS.

LONDON, February 1.

The Greek Legation announces that 2,000 armed Turks headed by Edhem Bey surrendered to the Greek army in Asia Minor.

SPORT.

BILLIARDS CHAMPIONSHIP.

V.R.C. TOURNAMENT.

At the Victoria Recreation Club last night, E. Guimaraes and Ng Sze Kwong met in the first game of the annual tournament for the Billiards Championship of the Colony, and a very interesting game resulted in a win for Guimaraes by 500-381.

The breaks of the evening were:—Guimaraes, 34, 30, 28, 27, 25, 25, 21 and eleven smaller double figures. Ng Sze Kwong, 48, 23, 20 and five other double figure efforts.

TONIGHT'S GAME.

To-night a very good game will be witnessed when F. Ozorio meet A. G. Fife.

H. D. KIM TONG CUPS.

PALACE HOTEL HANDICAP.

Last night's play at the Palace Hotel, Kowloon, in connection with the competition for the above cups, resulted in Sgt-Major Stroud (-200) beating J. Seymour (-125), 250-62; and Wong Po Hong (-200) defeating J. Snook (-200), 250-212.

The highest breaks of the matches were:—Stroud, 32, 24, 23 (twice), 21, 20, 19 and 18. Wong, 28 (twice), 19, 18 (twice), 17 and 15 (twice). Snook, 29 (twice), 20, 17 (twice) and 16.

TONIGHT'S GAMES.

To-night the following games will be played:—6 p.m., J. E. Clapham (-125) v. T. B. Gidding (-300). 9 p.m., R. Potter (-100) v. G. Thomas (-100).

INTERPORT GOLF.

SOME SHANGHAI COMMENTS.

The following comments on the team to Hongkong appeared in the latest copy of the N.C. Daily News to hand:—

The team of the Shanghai Golf Club to contest the challenge cup now in Hongkong's possession is now definitely ascertained to be not quite so strong as was originally hoped. For one thing it is known for certain that K. M. Cumming will not be included, and it was not possible on January 24 to state whether Captain Dewar will be able to travel. It was much hoped that he will, as otherwise it is possible that Shanghai will be able to send only four men. Of these four the following have already been announced:—J. B. Ferrier, Marr Johnson and W. Roberts—and the services of W. J. Hawkins have also been secured for the team. He is a most useful player, and just missed qualifying for the championship this season. He ought to give a very good account of himself at Hongkong, and if Captain Dewar is able to take part, Shanghai's chances should be very good.

RUGBY.

CHALLENGE CUP GAMES.

The first round of the competition for the Hongkong Rugby Challenge Cup has been completed with the Navy heading the list with two wins out of two matches played. The Club are in second position with one win, while the Army had had very bad luck in losing both games.

The second round of the competition is scheduled to be played on Wednesday, but there is talk of the Army experiencing great difficulty in raising a team owing to the camp training, and the Navy have very sportingly agreed to postpone the match for a week. The next game on the programme—Club v. Army—is down for decision on the Club ground on Saturday, kick-off at 4.30 p.m. The Army will be able to raise a team by then, and what is more, they expect to be at their full strength. The Club, too, hope to field a strong XV, so that a very keen and exciting struggle is anticipated.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

H. E. the Governor gave a dinner party last evening at Government House. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Smith, Sir Eric and Lady Stewart Taylor, Major G. H. M. Surtees, D.S.O., Pay Lt. Com. and Mrs. Stern, Capt. and Mrs. Leslie Smith, Lieut. E. H. O'Connor, R.N., and Mrs. and Miss Healing.

INDIANS AND WORDS WORTH.

Of what nature is the "trouble" in India that we have been hearing about? Is it worse than a direct censorate allows us to know, or is it exaggerated by the meagre allusions of Reuters? So we ask ourselves, and with a shudder shrug, perhaps, confess our ignorance and helplessness.

The propaganda of Mr. Gandhi is plain enough. He is advocating a peaceful boycott, promising the people that twelve months' loyal observance of it will make the British government more reasonable. We perceive that he will not get that loyal observance. He asks above all for passivity, and impatient mobs have rioted. He asks for things that require great unselfishness, and is unlikely to find that everywhere. Lawyers are to refuse to practise in British courts. Students are to retire from British schools. Indians wearing British honours are to surrender them. In short, nothing British, whether it seem good or bad, is to be countenanced. This is "asking too much."

What is the grievance that occasions this protest? Here we have not been particularly advised. We surmise that the Indians are dissatisfied with the Morley-Minto reforms. We conclude that they have discovered that the powers conceded to them are empty forms. It must be that the introduction of the elective principle into provincial affairs, the enlargement of the Legislative Councils, the admission of an Indian member to the Executive Council, the establishment of an unofficial majority (in the provinces at least) has been discovered to confer no real power and no genuine responsibility, or training for it. The political Indian has perhaps discovered that the recent gift had a sting to it.

Encouraged for years by our promises of ultimate self government, backed up by educational preparation for it, it would seem that the Indian has been offended by the big advertisement of concessions that proved hollow when grasped. It is difficult to think of any other grievance, without being driven to one of such long standing that it is unlikely to have aroused so fresh a resentment. One good authority tells us that among educated Indians he found many definitely and finally embittered against the British connection, because of "some ranking memory of insult at the hands of a European. He takes the precaution of adding that such conduct is not typical of the Englishman in India, but on the other hand he avers that "the class of Englishmen who not merely offer but consider it their duty to offer these insults to Indians must also be numbered in hundreds." Admit that, and you admit sufficient. No further explanation will be needed. The Indian is a sensitive human being; there is nothing he resents more than an insult to his dignity. It is pathetic, it is illuminating, to read in the Times literary supplement a collection of quotations from essays by Indian students on the poet Wordsworth. They were taken, we are told, practically verbatim, from recent answers to examination questions to fourth year students in an Indian college.

One of them points out that Western civilization is mostly materialistic. Wordsworth's poetry disclosed to him that "Europeans cannot be destitute of the principles of morality and virtue, but that they must possess kind feelings and tender affections in common with all people." For the light that it throws upon the spiritual progress of the West, Wordsworth's poetry is of great importance to Indian students. It would be impossible to conceive a revelation more naive or more terrible than this, that these Indian youths needed something to convince them of our common humanity. Possibly the publication of these comments will have surprised some Europeans into the realization that even Indians have tender affections and sentiments.

Another student of European civilization tells us that "at first glance it seems to be altogether a material one, and the product of the efforts of politicians and engineers alone." For him Wordsworth's poem seemed to be "a counter-tempering force, benumbing the true spirit of society." Another even finds it "rather strange that a poet like Wordsworth, with the turn of mind of a mystic, should have been born in England," rather than in the Orient. A comment like that shows how our representations in India must have been misrepresenting us, far more than any specific complaint could do. The conclusion of that particular student was that Wordsworth, though an Oriental in spirit, was "evidently an Oriental in fact." When, oh when, shall we bring all men to see and know that geographical and national boundaries are artificialities that in no way define the spirit of our common humanity, to see and know that we all have the same sorrows and joys and aspirations, to see and know that in sentiment we are members of one family? Europeans in India, as in other Asiatic lands, have certainly not as a class realized this. Hence trouble.

BELILIGS PUBLIC SCHOOL.

ANNUAL PRIZEGIVING.

LADY STUBBS GIVES AWARDS.

The annual prizegiving of Beliligs Public School took place this morning, the ceremony being held at Queen's College. Lady Stubbs distributed the awards in the presence of a large gathering of scholars and a number of prominent visitors. Among the prominent guests were the Hon. Mr. E. A. Irving, Director of Schools, and Miss Irving, and Mr. Ralphs, Inspector of Schools.

The Headmistress, Miss C. E. Clarke, read the annual report, which was received with applause. It follows:

In 1920 the School was open on 183 days, and the average daily attendance was 508, a record. The school is full, and in the early months of the year, when most of the new girls come, many would be pupils had to be refused entrance. It is only with great difficulty that a room has been arranged for the new Normal Class.

There have been several changes in the English Staff. During my absence on leave, Miss Cooper acted as Headmistress, but was transferred to the Peak School on my return. Mrs. Updell, who teaches in the mornings only, Mrs. James, Mrs. Forster, and Mrs. Church joined the staff. Mrs. James for three months only. Mrs. Ritchie resigned at the end of December, and is much missed. Miss Ng Mei Han resigned from the Vernacular Staff. On account of the large numbers in the school, an extra Chinese Mistress, Miss Cheung Sui Ying, was appointed.

An entrance fee of $3 is now paid by all new girls, who are medically examined by Mrs. Hickling. All the candidates for the University Locals took the Examination in December. Six girls entered for the Senior, and all passed. Eleven sat for the Junior, and ten passed. Six Distinctions were gained. Five girls entered for the Preliminary Oxford, and two passed. Apart from outside examinations, all classes were examined in all subjects in June and December, and the results recorded in the Teacher's Books; these were forwarded for approval to the Inspector of English Schools and the Inspector of Vernacular Schools respectively. The work is tested every week in class examinations, set and corrected by the mistress in charge, while occasional papers are set by the Headmistress or the Senior Vernacular Mistress.

Since September, Mrs. Forster has directed the work of those Junior Assistants who teach English in the Vernacular classes. The gain to the school will be two fold: the standard of teaching will be raised, while the extra training given to the teachers cannot but bring good results.

Seven past pupils, all at present on the Staff, took the Women Teachers' Examination (Technical Institute) in June, and six passed. Two courses of Cookery Lectures were attended by those members of the Staff, who belong to the Victoria Nursing Division, and at the examination held in June every candidate gained Distinction.

It is good to know that the girls are as anxious as ever to give help to those who need it. The sum of $1,232 was contributed to the Ministering Children's League, and a collection for the North China Famine Relief Fund amounted to $242.60, while monthly subscriptions are paid to the Netherlands Hospital and the Kowloon Orphanage.

The Prize Giving does not seem itself without Mrs. Titcher, she, alas, has left the Colony, but her interest in the school is as keen as ever, and I know she will be delighted to hear the news of its progress.

The thanks of the school are due to the subscribers to the Prize Fund for their kindness in contributing the books, to Mrs. Hickling for her interest and help, always given in all matters connected with the Nursing Division, and her voluntary work in examining the girls' eyesight, and to the Manager of Nestlé's Milk Co. who not only sent a generous consignment of condensed milk for the use of the Cookery Class, but also provided a prize for an examination held in February.

Also I wish to thank the Head Master of Queen's College for lending us this hall.

In conclusion, I am sure Miss Cooper joins me in thanking the Staff for a year of hard work, done loyal and wholeheartedly.

Lady Stubbs then distributed the prizes. Afterwards she expressed her gratitude to the girls for their work for the Ministering Children's League. She thanked also Miss Cooper for working so hard. She said she knew little of the school, but she had asked Miss Clarke if she might come and visit it and explain to the girls what was done with the funds they had collected.

Lady Stubbs was loudly applauded, and then two little girls brought up a beautiful bouquet of flowers and presented it to her. This brought the proceedings to a close.

R.H.K.V.C. CHAMPIONSHIP.

SATURDAY'S RACE.

The sixth championship race was sailed off on Saturday in a very variable wind. A fair breeze held all classes had reached the North Fairway Buoy which was the first mark of the course. From there to Trocas Rock buoy some yachts saw other competitors passing them on either hand whilst they themselves lay becalmed; eventually the wind came very strongly from the N. E. and the race was taken to starboard as the last mark in an 8 3/4 mile course. "Rolla" saved her time in the Handicap Class. "Alisa" beat "Daphne" after an exciting race in the One Design Class. In the Heyward Heys "Ursula" saved her time, as did "Toinette" in the Gales.

 Class for beginners will open on February 15.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The "Hong Wan I" a steamer owned by the Seng Soon Hong, Bonham Strand and registered in Singapore, has been stranded on the rocks at Bell Island, near Swatow. H.M.S. "Carlew" which went to the assistance of the steamer has been followed by the tug "Taikoo."

Attention is drawn to an alteration in the Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamers advertisement giving the sailing dates from to-day as follows:—From Macao, 8 a.m. (instead of 8.30 a.m.), From Hongkong, 2 p.m. (instead of 5 p.m.).

According to the Rock the portion of the Ice House Street between Des Voeux Road and Queen's Road, where the Hongkong Stock Exchange is situated, is shortly to be widened. It is reported that the Exchange building and the brokers' offices contiguous therewith will be pulled down in two or three months' time and the street widened, to forty feet. When reconstructed, the new building will be proportionately increased in height and so provide more office accommodation in this very much sought after locality in the city.

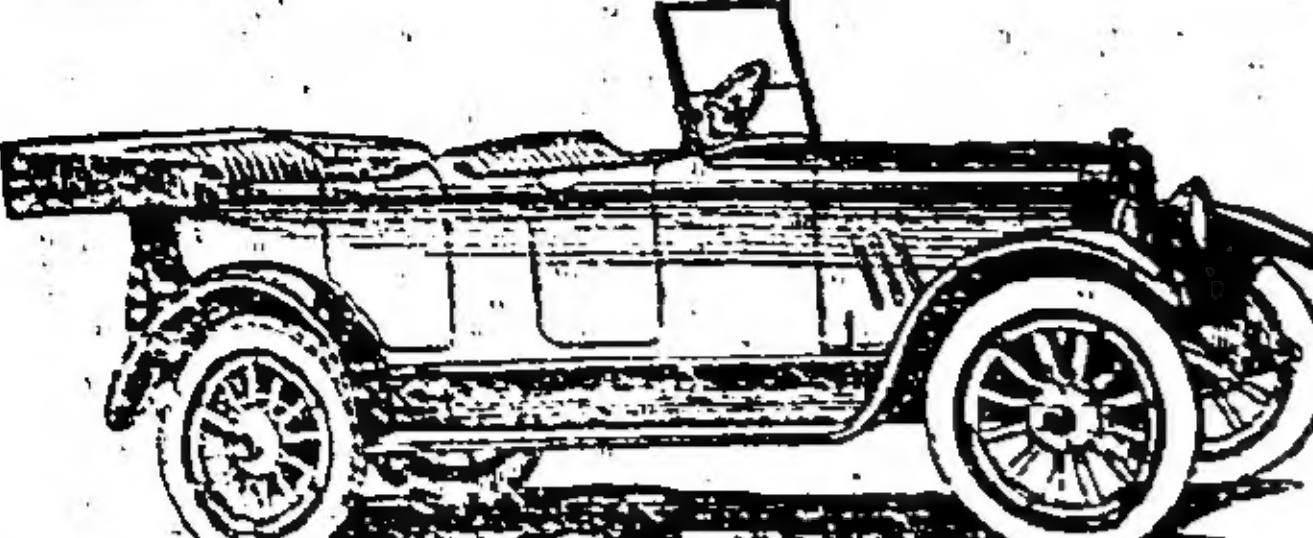

The following is the result of a League shoot between the H.M.S. "Hawkins" and Wilts B Company fired at Stonecutters Range on Friday the 28th inst. resulting in a win for H.M.S. "Hawkins" by 143 points.

CAPTAIN'S DISMISSAL.

UPHELD BY COURT.

DAMAGES REFUSED.

Judgment for the defence was given yesterday in the Summary Court by the Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice Wood, in the suit of Captain Harold Percy Robinson, former master of the steamer "Haitian," against the owners of the vessel, the Man Wing Steamship Co., Ltd., of 38, Bonham Street, for $1,000 for alleged wrongful dismissal.

The plaintiff claimed that he was entitled to $1,440, which was three months' wages at $480 a month, in lieu of notice. He waived $440 to bring the claim within the jurisdiction of the Summary Court.

Mr. W. B. Hind, of G. K. Hall, Burton & Co., appeared for the plaintiff; Mr. D. J. Lewis, of Johnson, Stokes & Master, appeared for the defendants.

His Lordship said that he would not call upon the defence, but would enter judgment for the defendants, with costs. Captain Robinson claimed damages for wrongful dismissal. The dismissal was not denied, but had been justified by the defence on two grounds. The first was the conduct of Capt. Robinson in ordering certain repairs to be done on his ship without authority; the second was the state of the ship's log-books, discovered after dismissal. In consequence of the view he was taking on the first ground, he proposed, with the leave of both parties, not to consider the second ground at all. He would not like, himself, to give an opinion whether the state in which the log-books were found did in itself form a proper ground for dismissing the master of a ship. If the parties desired a ruling on that point he would ask leave to sit with a Marine Assessor in that matter.

Continuing, he said: As to the conduct of the master in ordering these repairs, I find as a fact that it has not been shown that in so doing he was in any way dishonest. It has also not been shown that he was disobedient to any expressed order given by his employer. I find that in all these repairs he acted without any authority whatever. He has given certain evidence as to a message which he received while the work was in progress. That message, as it seems to me, could constitute no authority of any kind, and I think I should say that the fact it has been adduced here as authority seems to me not quite straightforward. Capt. Robinson, when he took his ship into dock, took it there under orders, that a contract with the Kowloon Dock Company might be carried out, but the work being mainly in the engine-room, in his own mind, Capt. Robinson decided that additional repairs to the ship were desirable. It is not necessary for me to find whether those repairs were necessary to render the vessel seaworthy; I do find, however, that a certain number were, and a certain number were not so necessary. On looking through the bill, which has been put in I see no reason to dissent from the estimate given by Mr. Lewis that some $10,000 worth of the repairs ordered, but of an amount of $30,000 or more, may be considered reasonably necessary. Capt. Robinson, desiring these repairs, made no report to his principals, who were in the Colony; he took the bit between his teeth and made his own arrangements. From his evidence it appears that not only did he attempt, without authority, to pledge the credit of his principal for a large sum, but that he acted on his own initiative mainly because he supposed that if he asked for authority, authority would not be given.

I think a judge would put the case to a jury somewhat as follows:—Is it reasonable, that an employer should continue to employ a servant who has attempted to pledge his credit, without authority, for a large sum, or has the action of the master of this ship been such that it has destroyed all possible confidence between the employer and servant? In this case I personally do not see how the owners of the ship, when they discovered what was going on, could have been reasonably expected to continue the appointment. Capt. Robinson should have made a report on the condition of the ship; he should have submitted his suggestions, and he should have allowed his principals an opportunity of giving him instructions or making their own contract. Instead, he took a course which had no reference, I think, to his employers' interests at all. I do not wish to say he acted against his employers' interests; what he did, he did indepen-

PIANOFORTE RECITAL.

PROF. SKLAREVSKI'S SERIES.

A BRILLIANT PERFORMANCE.

Professor Alexander Sklarevski, the eminent pianist, gave his fourth pianoforte recital at St. Andrew's Hall yesterday evening before a large audience which was roused to a high pitch of enthusiasm by his brilliant playing. So insistent was the applause at times, especially after his masterly interpretations of Mendelssohn's exquisite "Spinning Wheel," Schubert-Tausig's inspiring "Military March" (played by request), and Liszt's beautiful "Campanella," that Professor Sklarevski, who was made the recipient of a garland of flowers, had perforce to submit the encores demanded by a delighted audience.

His programme was as follows:—

I. Weber.—(a) Invitation to dance.

Mendelssohn.—(b) Song.

(c) Spinning Wheel.

(d) Hunting Song.

II. Chopin.—(a) Polonaise.

(b) Nocturne.

(c) Mazurka.

Schubert-Tausig.—(d) Military March (by request).

III. Rubinstein.—(a) Barcarolle.

(b) Valse.

Rachmaninoff.—(c) Prelude.

Liszt.—(d) Campanella.

Notwithstanding the announcement that yesterday's recital was the last Professor Sklarevski will give in Hongkong, local music lovers are united in the hope that the distinguished pianist may be induced to give a further display of his high musical talent before he leaves the Colony.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

RETURN OF GOODS.

SUMMARY COURT ACTION.

A claim which has been before the Court on previous occasions to determine the responsibility of one of the defendants, was set for hearing in the Summary Court this afternoon before the Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice Wood. It is the suit of the Hop Chi Cheong firm, of 40 Lower Lascar Row, against Yick Fat & Co., and Yick Fook Man, a partner in the firm. The claim is for the return of 44 packages of goods shipped by the plaintiffs on the steamer "Chekiang" under a bill of lading signed by defendants on June 24, 1920, together with $600 damages; or, in the alternative, damages to the sum of $1,000. The plaintiff is represented by Mr. Turner, of Deacon, Looker, Deacon and Harston; the defendant, by Mr. Crew, of Hastings and Hastings. The defence raised the question that the action was not properly directed against the partner in the firm, but the Court held otherwise, at a previous hearing. The suit therefore proceeds on the principal issue in the case.

Another clean bill of health was returned for the Colony yesterday. Last week six Chinese died from influenza, two from cerebro spinal fever, and two from diphtheria. Two cases of paratyphoid fever, one British and the other Indian, were also reported.

As it were. For all he knew, the owners of the ship might have been arranging to sell the ship and for the purchasers to bear any further expenses. Capt. Robinson did not know and did not care.

Referring to a case cited during the hearing, His Lordship said he thought the judges were right who laid down the principle that where the conduct of the servant destroyed the confidence that should exist between master and servant, the master could not be expected to continue the employment. That principle governed this case and on that ground he found for the defendant with costs.

Mr. Lewis said the defence had not suggested that Captain Robinson had committed any act of dishonesty. He applied for a special order for costs. These had been increased to the defendant, he said, because the plaintiff had employed in turn several firms of solicitors, with all of whom the defendant's solicitors had been required to correspond. His Lordship said he could consult the Registrar. If any action was possible in the matter, he would hear the parties in Chambers.

MIROVA-PODOLSKY.

Announcement is made that Miss Vera Mirova, the dancer, and Mr. Leo Podolsky, the pianist, both of whom made such a favourable impression in Hongkong on their recent appearances, will give another matinee recital here on Monday, February 7. It will take place in the Theatre Royal. They have been playing in Macao, and will appear in Canton, at the Club Theatre, on Wednesday. The programme for the recital here will be entirely new, and will comprise some numbers in which the classic art of Miss Mirova and the masterly playing of Mr. Podolsky will appear to best advantage.

Two lots of Crown land (Kowloon Island Lot No. 1404 and Island Lot No. 2321) were yesterday afternoon sold by auction at the offices of the Public Works Department, for $11,550 and $9,900 respectively. The purchasers were Mr. Pui Laiting and Mr. Tam Wing-on. The first lot has an area of 60,000 square feet while the area of the second lot comprises 9,800 square feet. The upset prices for the two lots were $9,000 and $5,450 respectively, and the annual crown rents $344 and $102.

LITTLE BODIES AND BIG PAINS.

TEETHING WITHOUT TEARS THROUGH BABY'S OWN TABLETS.

The misery and pain that many babies suffer through teething time is expressed eloquently enough in fits of pitiful crying, fever, refusal of food, and diarrhoea—or perhaps constipation. Baby's Own Tablets—guaranteed to calm the nerves and soothe the perfectly harmless—act like magic, relieve pain, comfort baby and give rest to the mother, while teething progresses without tears.

Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, are safe and pleasant for the youngest infant and the growing child. Besides being so helpful during the teething period they remove constipation, allay feverishness, cure colic, indigestion and worms.

Obtainable from chemists, also at 60 cents the vial, post free from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 98 Bechen Road, Shanghai.

NEW CATHEDRAL HALL.

OPENED BY GOVERNOR.

ANNUAL CHURCH MEETING.

In the presence of many of the Church Body and the congregation, H. E. the Governor yesterday afternoon formally opened the new Cathedral Hall, adjoining St. John's Cathedral. After a short ceremony, the Hall was appropriately employed for the annual meeting of the cathedral and subscribers of the cathedral. The annual report was received, the accounts were adopted, and action was taken in regard to increasing the salary of the Bishop of Victoria, and several other matters.

The Cathedral Hall is an attractive structure, in keeping with the architecture of the Cathedral, and lofty, cool, and well lighted. Its cost was about $52,000. It will accommodate 500 people. There is a committee room, and cloak rooms.

The Bishop of Victoria, Rt. Rev. C. R. Dwyer, D.D., presided. The ceremony opened with the singing of the hymn, "The Church's One Foundation," Mr. Denman Fuller, the Cathedral Organist, accompanying on the piano.

The Bishop then made a few introductory remarks, expressing his great pleasure in asking the Governor to open the Hall, and referred to the fact that it was the Governor who had laid the foundation stone eight months ago.

The Governor, greeted with applause, said the Hall had been built to fill a long-felt want, as a meeting place for those activities of the corporate body of the Church which have not hitherto had a home themselves—the meetings of seatholders and similar gatherings. He continued: "In these days it is, I am afraid, impossible to say that the Church in Hongkong has shown itself to be in a very flourishing condition. I fear that the attendance at the Cathedral shows that the congregation of the Church of England is not so enthusiastic as it might be. Let us hope that as the result of the strengthening of the corporate activities of the congregation by the establishment of this Hall we may see an improvement in this state of things. The uses of this Hall are many, and I am sure that it will prove to be a most valuable institution to the Diocese, and in this hope and in the hope that the blessing of God will rest upon the deliberations which take place here, I declare this Cathedral Hall to be open."

The declaration was received with applause. Afterwards the Bishop gave a dedicatory prayer, and the ceremony came to an end.

The assembly then resolved itself into the annual meeting of seatholders and subscribers. The Bishop presided and with him on the platform were H. E. the Governor, the Senior Chaplain (Rev. H. Copley Moyle), Archdeacon Barnett, the Rev. J. T. Holman (assistant chaplain), and the following lay members of the Church Body—Commodore W. Bowden Smith, and Messrs. A. H. Compton, L. Forster, J. W. C. Nelson (hon. treasurer), and W. L. Patterson (hon. sec.). Amongst the seatholders and subscribers in attendance were: The Hon. Dr. Claud Severn, the Hon. Mr. P. H. Holyoak, and the Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock, K.C.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and confirmed, and the Senior Chaplain, the Rev. H. Copley Moyle then read the annual report, giving some particulars of the new Hall, and discussing Cathedral affairs at length. He said: "The need of such a building has long been evident to all who have taken an active part in the work of the Cathedral, but during the War no active steps could be taken to meet the need. Soon after the War was over an anonymous donor undertook to give a quarter of the cost of the building. With this promise to encourage us, we asked for $40,000. Thanks to the generous response made to this appeal, we have been able to erect the Hall and open it free of debt. The clearing of the site proved a difficult and dangerous work and there was a regrettable accident by which two coolies lost their lives. A special collection was made in the Cathedral on Sunday, April 18, which amounted to $328, and which was given to the relatives of the workmen who were killed. His Excellency the Governor laid the foundation stone of the Hall on May 30, and the building progressed rapidly at first, but it ought to have been finished last November, according to the contract. Though he has exceeded the time allowed, the contractor, Mr. Lam Woo, has had the work well done. The strength of the retaining wall was well tried by the heavy and continuous rains of last summer and stood the test. The building is solid and good and ought to stand for many years. At present we have put in only the absolutely necessary furniture, for this reason: We were given to understand that the roof of the Cathedral was attacked by white ants and that in order to repair the damage it would be necessary to close the Cathedral entirely. In that case services would have been held in this Hall, and we should have had to put in here as much as possible of the Cathedral furniture. Now the architects hope to have the Cathedral roof repaired in sections, and not to close the whole building. I mention this to explain why you see so little furniture in the Hall. We are very grateful to all who have helped to provide this Hall and we hope to see it put to much use as a central meeting place, not only for the work of the Cathedral but also for Diocesan purposes. The architects, Mr. Leach and Mr. Wood, have given much thought and time to the building and our thanks are due to them and their assistants. Owing to the kindness of an anonymous donor the Hall has an endowment of $10,000, so it will not add to our Cathedral expenses."

The report touched on the Bishop's appeal for $4,000 to maintain the missionary work of the Diocese, and the generous response it had received, as then referred to the Diocesan Conference in February last. It went on: "The Conference recommends that the Island of Hongkong should be regarded as one parish under the Cathedral and that St. Andrew's should be the parish church for the New Territory. Since then St. Peter's Church has been regarded as a daughter church of the Cathedral and an effort is being made to provide a more ornate service at St. Peter's to meet the wishes of those who are often described as Anglo-Catholics. It is hoped in time to provide sung Eucharist at St. Peter's every Sunday."

Reference was made to the successful continuation of the children's service, begun at the end of 1919, and to the fact that a crippled child in the Home for Waifs and Strays has been adopted and is maintained by the collections from these services. For this purpose $50 was sent home last year. A handsome Sunday School banner presented by Mr. Fleming is used at these services. A Flower Service on November 7, the anniversary of the children's service, seemed very popular. The flowers were sent to the hospitals. Mr. Fleming's departure was a great loss to the work amongst children.

Referring to the organ, the Chaplain mentioned that Mr. Denman Fuller raised for the fund during the year $2,000. Mr. Denman Fuller had applied himself to the improvement of the organ with great energy and much work had been done. It had been necessary to take out most of the works of the instrument and pneumatic action is being substituted. A new method of blowing, for emergency use in the event of the failure of the electric blower, has also been installed. The new tube is in place and will shortly be ready for use.

Mr. Fuller had been working hard to improve the choir, which now numbered 30 adults and 11 boys. Thanks were due to the members of the choir and to the Rev. J. B. Pimm and some officers and men of H.M.S. "Hawkins" for help at the evening service.

In an account of the events of the year, the report mentioned specially that in April, Sir Paul Chater gave $25,000 to endow the Cathedral. This magnificent donation, with a like amount to St. Andrew's was a thank-offering on the fifty-sixth anniversary of Sir Paul's landing in the Colony. It was to be hoped that the endowment would not diminish the contributions of members of the Church, but would enable a more efficient work to be carried on, and that it would be possible to make all the seats in the Cathedral free and have an adequate staff of clergy, so that more spiritual help might be given to British people here.

After much consideration, the Church Body had accepted plans for the repairs which Mrs. Bowdler offered to present to the Cathedral in memory of her late husband. It was to be made of marble and alabaster. The work was being done by Messrs. W. Morris & Co. of London, and it was hoped would be erected in the course of the year.

The report also referred to the preparation for the erection of the War Memorial unveiled on the previous day, to the departure of Bishop Lander and the endorsement of his successor, to the contribution raised towards the Westminster Abbey Restoration Fund and to the recently reported discovery of the ravages of white ants in the Cathedral roof.

Dealing with the work of the Cathedral personnel, the report mentioned that the Rev. J. T. Holman is here on an agreement for 18 months, and that the Rev. H. Copley Moyle's agreement expired in April and has been renewed indefinitely subject to six months' notice on either side. As to the work of the clergy, the visitation of the gale had not been heavy as few European prisoners served sentences there; all the local hospitals were visited regularly and for special cases. The Holy Communion had been celebrated for the sick and dying in hospital and private houses on many occasions.

An account of the work of the C.E.M.S. which had suffered through the departure of Mr. Fleming and Dr. Earle, of special efforts for deepening spiritual life, and of the changes during the year in the Church Body, led to a comment upon the difficulty of carrying on Church work in the Colony owing to the rapid changes of population.

The report concluded by remarking that though the needs of the future hardly came into a report on the past year, yet it was acquiring sites for new Churches in places like Repulse Bay where a British population seemed likely soon to be growing up. Mr. Moyle expressed cordial thanks to the Press for its help, and to all who had worked for the Church during the year. "The Cathedral," he said, "is now better equipped than it has ever been and we may confidently hope that the work will, with God's blessing, grow and prosper."

The Bishop thanked Rev. Copley Moyle for his interesting and comprehensive report.

The accounts showed a debit balance of $2,678.78 in the General Fund. The $25,000 Endowment Fund provided by Sir Paul Chater has earned $937.10 interest. The Cathedral Hall Fund shows a balance in hand of $8,026.25, and there is the $10,000 Endowment Fund showed the amount so far expended to be $100, leaving a balance of $2,136.43. The Organ Fund shows expenditure of $1,140.43, leaving a balance of $83.66. The balance in hand in the Assistant Chaplain Fund is $326.65, and $16,000 invested.

Moving the adoption of the Accounts, the Hon. Secretary, Mr. Patterson, referred to the repairs necessary in the Cathedral. In addition to the repairs to the roof, white ants had also been discovered in the tower, the floor of which was in a condition bordering on dangerous. The ants had also appeared in the flooring of the nave, a great portion of which would have to be renewed. Tenders had been invited, and the lowest was $2,700, which only covered the work in sight, and did not include the nave. It was impossible to forecast the cost until the ceiling boards had been removed, and until they had had opportunity of fuller examination of the flooring in the nave. Although owing to the munificence of Sir Paul Chater the financial position was better than it had been for many years, the Church Body would have to adopt a very conservative policy and consider how to meet the heavy expense that might be incurred in effecting these extensive repairs. While on the subject, the Chair Endowment Fund had been converted by the Trustees into dollars, and he understood that the Cathedral Funds had greatly benefited by that. The Choir Fund was not shown this year; it had been merged into the General Fund.

Dr. Sanders seconded the adoption of the statement, which was carried. The meeting then took up the appointment of lay members of the church body. The following were appointed: The Hon. Dr. Claud Severn, Commodore Bowden-Smith, Mr. L. Forster, Mr. W. L. Patterson, Mr. N. C. Wilson, and Mr. J. W. C. Nelson.

Mr. J. B. Ross was re-appointed hon. auditor.

The next business considered was the compensation paid to the Bishop of Victoria. The Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock said he thought it was well known that owing to the high exchange during the time their late Bishop was with them, the question of exchange compensation became acute. Lately they had witnessed a considerable drop in exchange and that had relieved the situation to a certain extent, but he did not think sufficiently. At present exchange the Bishop's salary of $1,000 was roughly $650 per month. Mr. R. Hancock had secured promises of a guarantee towards exchange compensation to the extent of $2,500 a year, or $200 a month, bringing the stipend up to $850. He would suggest for the consideration of the meeting that they might add the sum of $100 out of the general funds. He believed it was the intention of St. Andrew's Church to do something also in this direction. He begged to move: "That this meeting approve of the sum of 100 dollars per month for each of the months of the year 1921 being paid to the Bishop as Exchange Compensation out of the general funds of the Cathedral."

He should perhaps first have mentioned the matter of the Bishop's residence. The present building was in somewhat dilapidated and shabby condition, and the question would have to be taken up in the near future.

Hon. Mr. Holyoak seconded the motion.

Mr. Patterson moved an amendment that the amount of the vote be increased to $200.

Hon. Dr. Severn moved a further amendment that the Bishop's salary be treated as salaries generally in the Colony have been treated in the last few years, by paying it at the rate of two shillings to the dollar, making it $10,000 a year, and that the Cathedral make up the difference from time to time.

Rev. Copley Moyle: Out of the Cathedral funds?

Hon. Dr. Severn: Yes, unless some other body comes in to help. The Bishop, expressing diffidence in speaking on the matter of his own stipend, said he did not, however, regard it as a personal matter at all. His understanding was that when the Bishopric was formed an endowment fund was given, and as the result $1,000 had been paid the Bishop yearly. Out of that, however, the Bishop had to pay all official expenditure, including travelling money when he went about the big Diocese; pay for his own secretary, postage, stationery, typewriter, etc. There was no allowance whatsoever. When the Bishopric was offered him, it was computed to be worth $358.

Hon. Mr. Holyoak said that while he was in sympathy in considering the stipend utterly and disgracefully inadequate, he was of opinion that purely missionary travelling expenses should be borne by adequate allowance from the Church Missionary Society. The Cathedral was prepared to assist adequately in providing a worthy stipend for the Bishop, but it was not reasonable that out of that stipend should come what were purely missionary travelling expenses. They should be debited to the Society on whose behalf the travelling was undertaken.

The Bishop said that in his travelling he ministered not only to Chinese but to any Europeans who might be there. "He emphasised His Excellency's words about the encouragement of a corporate spirit in the Diocese and said it was not an easy thing to take over a great big diocese like this, reaching 1,200 miles to Yunnan and away 40 miles to Peking. It was not his conception of duty that he should put his work into water-tight compartments, and he never differentiated as to nationalities. That a man was man was how it appealed to him. He was not discussing the matter on his own behalf, but on behalf of the Bishopric. He wanted to make it rightly as easy as possible for his successors."

Hon. Mr. Holyoak still contended that they should have definite grant from the Church Missionary Society for this work.

The Bishop said that expenses of travelling for confirmations were borne by the Church Missionary Society.

His Excellency said he thought that part of the endowment fund for the Bishopric was provided by the Church Missionary Society, which might therefore feel justified in making some claim on the Bishop during his travels in China. The question was not of much importance from the point of view of principle. What the Bishop wanted to ensure was that the Bishop's stipend was ample, and he did not think that anyone would contend that it was. He thought all were agreed upon that point, and having that basis of agreement he thought they might proceed to discuss what they could do to improve matters. If Mr. Holyoak could persuade the Church Missionary Society to assist further, the Diocese and the Bishop's successors would appreciate it.

Rev. Copley Moyle said the Cathedral had been paying $100 since the Bishop had been here and he pointed out that it was not fair that the whole of the burden of exchange compensation should fall on the Cathedral. He would like it if the Cathedral could pay $500; but it was a Diocesan matter and the Cathedral represented only part of the Diocese.

The Bishop concurred.

Hon. Mr. Pollock's motion was then put and carried.

The Bishop explained the object of the proposed Diocesan Conference. One of the difficulties here was that they had an English side and a Chinese side, a dual organisation. Last year, for the first time, a conference of representatives of the English side was held, and it was suggested that a similar conference be held this year. The suggested date was March 8.

Representatives from Canton, Macao and elsewhere would be invited and he hoped would be present.

The following were appointed to represent the Cathedral congregation at the Conference: Mrs. Pollock, Mrs. Knight, Hon. Mr. Pollock, Dr. Sanders, Mr. Forster and Mr. Witcheil.

Mr. Compton expressed the thanks of the congregation for the generous endowment given by Sir Paul Chater and moved—

"That this meeting approve of the sum of 100 dollars per month for each of the months of the year 1921 being paid to the Bishop as Exchange Compensation out of the general funds of the Cathedral."

Mr. Forster seconded and the resolution was carried with applause.

The Bishop thanked His Excellency and the congregation for their attendance. The meeting then came to a close.

SCHOOL SPEECH DAYS.

ST. FRANCIS' SCHOOL.

The annual distribution of prizes of St. Francis' School (Italian Convent, Wanchai Branch), took place at St. Patrick's Hall yesterday afternoon. Among the large gathering were Archbishop Morrell, of Pondicherry, who is passing through Hongkong, Sir Robert and Lady Ho Tung, and the Rev. Frs. Robert and Maria.

Prior to the presentation of the prizes by Lady Ho Tung a very enjoyable concert was given by the scholars, including pianoforte solos, mandoline quartettes, recitations, songs, drills, and an entertaining farce entitled "The Two Opposite Characters."

The Headmistress read her annual report as follows:—

The growth of the school is proceeding apace. From an average attendance of 132.80 in 1919, it increased to 155.16 last year, the numbers on the Roll in the month of December for the two years, respectively, being 142 and 167. The Holy Infancy School for Chinese has an enrolment of 80 scholars. Instruction is given up to Standard VI. The strength of the staff at the date of the official inspection on May 17, 1920, was 4 sisters and 2 temporary teachers. On the recommendation of the Inspector of English Schools, since September last the staff has been increased by one sister. Among other recommendations Mr. R. E. O. Bird (who inspected the school in the absence of Mr. E. Ralphs on home leave) suggests that "some time during the winter months should be devoted to Swedish drill. It could be taken on the verandahs." In this advice we are brought face to face with the difficulty of suitable school accommodation. I may perhaps be permitted to reiterate the remark in a previous report that St. Francis School has to pay a monthly rental to the Government of $200 for its present premises. The lack of a playground is acutely felt and for the number of scholars, this deficiency cannot be supplied with the extremely meagre resources of the school which does not enjoy the benefit on any public or private endowment or gifts for its maintenance. I venture to put forward, for the second time, an appeal to the authorities that in the scheme of the new Praya East Reclamation a site might be thought of for St. Francis School. It is a pioneer school for girls in the Colony and as such it may lay claim to some consideration.

Ever ready to adapt itself to the needs of the district in the matter of female education a special class was started in September of last year for the elder Chinese girls desirous of beginning to learn the English language. There are now 20 girls attending this class. The advantage of this special class is too obvious to need enlarging upon. Suffice it to say that its success is bound to popularise the class for Chinese girls in the Eastern district of the Colony. For the younger Chinese children attending the vernacular section of the school Chinese text books for reading and geography are those approved of by the Education Department. In this way it will be seen that the curriculum of the school conforms strictly to the requirements of the officials of that department. The Liquid Scholarship for 1920-1921 has been awarded to Miss Evelyn Murray.

It remains for me to thank Sir Robert and Lady Ho Tung for kindly consenting to take a leading part in our prize day this year and for their kind donation to our prize fund. We wish also to thank the parents of our scholars as well as our kind friends for their presence at our distribution of prizes, and the donors for their prizes. Lastly, to the Committee of the Catholic Men's Club the sincere thanks of the staff are due for their kindness in giving us the use of the Hall.

In a short address, Archbishop Morrell laid particular stress on the importance of education as a means to cultivate children's minds. He was very glad to notice the great progress made by the School during the past year and congratulated the pupils on the success of their entertainment. In India the British Government gave liberal help to the schools, especially girls' schools, and he hoped the same thing could be done here. If the Government could allow the Sisters to use the school premises free of charge it would be a great favour. The lack of funds was a great impediment to developing education and for this reason he invited all to come to help the Sisters in their good work.

Lady Ho Tung then distributed the prizes.

In thanking the Mother Superior for inviting his wife to give away the prizes, Sir Robert Ho Tung offered his congratulations to the School on the success of last year's work. He was particularly glad to hear that the School had started a special English class for Chinese girls. One of Lady Ho Tung's regrets was that she had not devoted herself to acquiring such knowledge of English as she did of Chinese, because in her younger days there was no Government school for Chinese girls run on the same lines as those existing to-day. Now that the children had the benefit of good Sisters he would advise them to profit as much as they could by the teachings of the kind ladies. There was a saying in the First Book of the Chinese that "If you don't learn when you are young you will be useless when you are old." He was very much interested to hear that St. Francis' School was a pioneer school and was equally sorry to hear that it was labouring under the difficulties of insufficient accommodation and the want of a playground. He could only endorse the Mother Superior's appeal in her report that when more land was provided in the eastern district to the completion of the reclamation scheme the authorities would consider the Mother Superior's petition for more suitable premises to house the School. The wisest expenditure of any Government was to help in the education of children who would be the men of to-morrow. In the performance of the noble work of training children the Colony was to be congratulated that it had so many able Sisters who had devoted themselves whole-heartedly to the upbringing and intellectual upbringing of the younger generation. In conclusion, Sir Robert invited those present to join him in expressing their appreciation to the pupils who had given them

"I heard a cry of 'stop thief,' and afraid of being implicated, I ran,"
said a Chinese to Magistrate Orme this morning in answer to a charge of having entered house No. 63, Frays East at 5 a.m., for an unlawful purpose. The master of the second floor said that he was lying awake when he heard a noise outside the door. Through a spy hole he saw the accused with a bamboo trying to fish a silk coat through the mesh work above the door. Witness raised the alarm and chased the accused who ran into the arms of a Chinese constable. The Magistrate sentenced the accused to one month's hard labour.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The Ellis Kadoorie School famine relief fund now stands at $1,221.30.

After being closed for over six years, the German Consulate in Yokohama has been re-opened.

According to the Chinese Press,
"two notorious criminals" are paying a visit to Shanghai. A diligent search is being organized.

There is much juvenile sickness at present in Tientsin, everything in the shape of children's complaints from chicken-pox to scarlet fever being present.

Having been convicted of robbery in Pootung a thief, bound hand and foot, was carried round various districts and finally executed at the place where the robbery had been committed.

The marriage of Ernest Frank Clemens, eldest son of Consul and Mrs. Clemens, H.B.M. Consulate, Chungking, to Miss Irene Astle, only daughter of Henry Astle, Esq., Carlton Hill, London, will take place at St. Mark's, Hamilton Terrace, London, N.W., on February 5.

The Military Governor of Shanghai is reported to have received warning that a Chinese Bolshevik agent has set up his headquarters in Shanghai, with the object of stirring up trouble amongst factory workers. The directors of factories in Nantap, where some 10,000 men are employed, are being asked to warn their men against listening to "designing and evil propaganda."

About 11 o'clock this morning, the Fire Brigade received a call to attend an outbreak on board the ss. "Hal-loong" which was lying alongside the Douglas Wharf. The engines turned out promptly as usual but on arrival at the wharf their services were not required, the flames having already been extinguished by the ship's crew.
No damage was done either to the ship or cargo, and she sailed for Swatow at noon according to schedule.

The Meritorious Service Medal
was presented to Master Gunner
May, R.G.A., at a parade of the 88th Company and Headquarters Staff R.
G. A. by H.E. Major-General Sir G.
M. Kippax, K.C.B., K.C.S.I.,
General Officer Commanding the Forces in China. Major C. L. Hickling, D.S.O., R.G.A., read the record of service for which the award was made. The G.O.C. then pinned the medal on the recipient's breast, and shook hands with him, and congratulated him on the award. The official record read as follows: "For Val-able and Meritorious Service.—1st Class Master Gunner George Thomas
May, R.G.A., performed the duties of Armament Staff Officer, China Command, and Assistant to the Fire Commander, Western Defences, Hongkong, November, 1914, until the end of the War. These duties are normally performed by Officers of experience and seniority and were carried out by Master Gunner May to the satisfaction of his senior Officers."

Among the Kowloon Notes in the Rock is the following:—On the subject of recreation grounds the Government is intent on utilising temporarily the vacant lands to the north of Salisbury Road. It is about time that this waste ground were put to better purpose, and the unsightly pools of water after each heavy shower of rain removed. The main difficulty at present is the cost of laying out and turning.
Surely the Colony's treasury is not so depleted that it cannot afford a few thousand dollars to convert the land in question into wellturfed lawns for out-door games and children's playground. The suggestions submitted to the Government by the Residents' Association embrace
(1) tennis courts; (2) garden resort with botanical specimens properly labelled; (3) provision of a bandstand and shelters has also been advanced; (4) cricket pitch and field for hockey and baseball. It has been suggested that the extreme end of this plot of land be allocated as an additional children's playground.
